

Mental math competition tests speed and accuracy in arithmetic calculations.

After qualifying with an A grade in the school level competition, Norah Jomy Varghese competed in the interschool Mental Math competition.

The finale round comprised of strict time limits and negative marking. Norah managed to secure a perfect score of 100 in this round.

She secured first rank mental math competition.

Congratulations Norah for your great achievement.

