

STUDENT BEHAVIOUR POLICY

(Adapted from ADEK policy on student behaviour)

INTRODUCTION

At St. Joseph's School we aim to promote good behaviour throughout the school. We are committed to maintaining an atmosphere and environment where students feel secure, happy and motivated to learn and where there is a sense of belonging and mutual respect.

Purpose

- Encourage positive student behaviors and to prevent and address behaviors of concern
- Provide support and intervention for students who are struggling to meet behavioural expectations, offering appropriate resources and guidance tailored to individual needs.
- Develop a comprehensive Code of Conduct to clearly outline expectations for student behaviour, including a unified set of minimum requirements.
- Implement a targeted school-level policy focused on bullying prevention.
- Establish a staged approach for addressing student misconduct, outlining specific procedures and consequences aligned with the severity of the behaviour.

Policy

1.Student Behaviour Policy will include the following:

- a) An overarching positive behavior model
- b) The school's Student Code of Conduct (refer handbook)
- c) Anti Bullying Policy (Anti bullying policy)
- d) Support and intervention for students.
- e) Annual review of the policy: Annual Review: Schools shall review their Student Behavior Policy and the effectiveness of its implementation on an annual basis. Schools shall also annually review their record of incidents of misconduct and disciplinary procedures taken to inform the review of the policy and its implementation.
- f) Parents acknowledgement of the policy : Schools shall take active measures to ensure that the policy is clear and understood throughout the school community, including ensuring that parents acknowledge the policy when signing the parent-school agreement.

2.Positive Behaviour Model

School shall implement a Positive Behavior Model to promote, recognize, reward, and reinforce positive behavior that consists of the following:

- Ensure that the promotion of high standards of behaviour is deeply integrated with the core values of the school through-
 - a) Respect for local values, traditions, religion, and culture.
 - b) A positive school environment that is welcoming, caring, safe, enriching, professional, and respectful to all, regardless of background, nationality, religion, ability/ disability, race, gender, etc.
- Educate all students on positive behavior such as social-emotional development, self-management, emotional regulation, respect for diversity, and bullying prevention and intervention.
- Training for educators on the school's Student Behavior Policy
- Role and obligations of parents in embodying and promoting positive behaviour.
- Set up support, interventions, and procedures in cases of misconduct and behaviours of concern.

3. Student Code of Conduct

School shall encourage positive behavior amongst their student body by establishing a Student Code of Conduct that comprises the following, at a minimum:

- Showing due care and respect for the school, its staff, students, and the wider community by
 - a) Following school rules
 - b) Behaving safely and responsibly, and with regard to the safety and welfare of oneself and others.
 - c) Caring for the school's property and facilities
- Maintain a professional appearance when representing the school on public occasions, dressing appropriately and adhering to the school's dress code guidelines.
- Demonstrate a commitment to learning by attending school and classes on time consistently. Provide explanations for lateness and absences when necessary, showing respect for the learning environment and the importance of regular attendance.
- Approach classwork, homework, and assignments with personal effort and dedication, striving for excellence in academic endeavours.
- Behave responsibly and respectfully both inside and outside the classroom, recognizing the impact of one's actions on the learning of others.
- Participate in extracurricular learning opportunities.
- Speak politely and behave courteously with others by using phrases such as "please" and "thank you" in speech. Demonstrate appreciation and respect for others through positive and respectful communication.
- Practice common courtesy by holding doors open for others, allowing them to pass through with ease.
- Queue in an orderly manner, respecting others' positions in lines or queues. Wait patiently and respectfully for one's turn, demonstrating consideration for others' time and space.
- Respect personal space and boundaries, seeking consent before touching or using the belongings of others.

- Take personal initiative to act as a responsible citizen of the school community by refraining from engaging in misconduct and promoting a safe and inclusive environment for all. Intervene (when appropriate) or report incidents of bullying or misconduct witnessed, demonstrating a commitment to the well-being of fellow students.
- Exhibit sportsmanship in both winning and losing situations, showing grace, respect, and integrity regardless of the outcome.
- Considering the impact of words and actions on all students, staff, and parents.
- Following good hygiene practices (e.g., washing hands, covering nose and mouth when sneezing/coughing, refraining from spitting, being mindful of unpleasant odors).
- Being vigilant of, caring for, supporting, and/or mentoring younger students, where appropriate.
- Taking personal initiative to encourage and promote environmental awareness, conservation, and sustainable practice,
- Foster a spirit of cooperation and inclusivity by working collaboratively with fellow students, valuing their contributions and perspectives.
- Demonstrate an open and welcoming attitude towards all students, especially those who may feel marginalized or vulnerable, such as new students or those frequently bullied.
- Dress modestly and appropriately in accordance with the school's dress code and grooming rules.
- Respecting UAE national identity and cultural values
- Recognizing the diversity of the school and wider community, and not discriminating against others based on characteristics such as ethnic origin, nationality, culture, language, religion, gender, or ability/ disability.

The expectation for students to exhibit positive behavior when under the school's supervision.

a. This includes periods when students are traveling to and from the school using school transportation and moving between, waiting for, and taking part in all activities organized by the school inside or outside its premises.

b. Schools are authorized to extend the applicability of the Student Code of Conduct to situations where students are representing the school indirectly when not under the school's supervision, such as when wearing a school uniform in public settings.

4. Misconduct Policy and Procedures

- School will to create a culture of applying positive behavior approaches when dealing with student misconduct by

1.Reviewing the incident with the student → giving them a chance to explain → understand and take ownership and accountability for their misconduct.

2.School will equally analyze possible root causes → behavior, engage the student in coming up with their own behavior management strategies → provides students with the necessary social, emotional, and educational support before any disciplinary action.

- Misconduct Policy and Procedures

Preventive Mechanisms: School will ensure that their student behavior policy outlines the mechanisms by which students are offered appropriate opportunities and guidance to identify the motivation behind their actions and rectify any negative behaviors before disciplinary action are taken.

6. Disciplinary Actions:

School is permitted to use any of the following disciplinary actions, provided they are proportionate, age-appropriate.

Staging of Disciplinary Procedures:

- a. Discussion with the student and/or parents
- b. Formal and recorded meetings with the student and/or parents
- c. Verbal warning
- d. Written warning to parents
- e. Temporary or permanent removal from a class/group, under appropriate supervision (onsite suspension).
- f. Loss of school privileges
- g. Temporary or permanent confiscation of illicit goods or items belonging to the student if inappropriate (e.g., a mobile phone or music player) with a resolution by the Behavioral Management Committee.
- h. Supervised detention during break, lunch, and/or after school (with parental consent)
- i. Supervised restorative community work.
- j. Temporary exclusion of the student from school premises (offsite suspension)
- k. Permanent exclusion of the student from school via the withdrawal /cancellation of their enrolment (expulsion)

School will forbid use any of the following methods as disciplinary actions:

- a. Corporal punishment (e.g., the use of physical force as a means of discipline or punishment with the intention of causing bodily pain or discomfort, however slight; in line with the ADEK Student Protection Policy.
- b. Disclosing personal information about a student without their consent (e.g., medical status, financial status, family affairs)
- c. Psychological punishment (e.g., verbal abuse, issuing threats)
- d. Locking a student inside the school premises.
- e. Seizing the student’s personal belongings without having a resolution by the Behavioral Management Committee.
- f. Lowering or threatening to lower the student's academic grade/score.
- g. Punishing a group for an individual’s misconduct.
- h. Imposing additional schoolwork.
- i. Mocking, insulting, or demeaning the student in private or in public.
- j. Preventing the student from using washroom facilities or consuming water and food.
- k. Detention outside of official school hours without parental consent.

7. Disciplinary Procedures: School will ensure that their policies outline clear and staged disciplinary procedures. School will employ suitable guidance and disciplinary measures aimed at helping students comprehend the reasons behind their unacceptable behavior and how to improve in the future. When addressing incidents of student misconduct, schools must consider each student's unique circumstances, personalities, and underlying social, emotional, and psychological factors. This approach ensures a more empathetic and personalized response, fostering understanding, accountability, and positive behavioral change among students.

In all cases of misconduct, school will take the following approach (as stated in ADEK policy) -

- Throughout the disciplinary process, schools shall monitor, document, and provide students with ongoing support.
- School will deal with misconduct that can be categorized as maltreatment (e.g., physical abuse, bullying, sexual abuse) in line with the maltreatment reporting procedure in the Handling Student Maltreatment Concerns within Educational Institutions (ECA, 2024).
- School shall involve law enforcement authorities as appropriate where misconduct is illegal as per the latest applicable laws in the UAE.
- School will ensure that, where disciplinary procedures are being exercised in relation to students with additional learning needs, the Head of Inclusion shall be consulted to determine appropriate disciplinary action.
- If a school fails to re-enroll a student who has faced disciplinary action in the previous year, this is classified as expulsion. School shall therefore seek approval from ADEK (see Section 4.9 Approval for Expulsion).

a) Appeals Procedure:

To appeal a school’s decision to expel the child, parents have 10 working days through various modes e.g via email, telephone, or face-to-face meeting .After review the school shall issue a final decision (accept or reject) within 2 working days for suspension cases and within 7 working days for expulsion cases and share the decision with the parent.

If parent rejects the school’s final decision, the parent shall be entitled to log a complaint to ADEK within 5 working days. ADEK reserves the right to investigate any complaint in conjunction with suspension and expulsion following the final decision, but not prior to it.

b)Positive Handling:

1.School should use positive handling as a last resort in specific circumstances to protect students and maintain order. This includes preventing students from leaving school premises when it jeopardizes safety, stopping them from harming themselves or others, and preventing property damage. Before resorting to positive handling, school shall consider all other options.

2. Staff must respond to extreme behaviour with reasonable and proportionate actions, minimizing the use of physical force. They should consider the risks and vulnerabilities of the student, such as impairments or medical conditions. Positive handling should only occur if the student is in immediate danger of harming themselves or others, and staff must have reasonable grounds to believe this. Only the minimum force necessary to prevent injury should be used. Every effort should be made to involve other staff members for assistance or as witnesses. Once the situation is no longer dangerous, the student should be allowed to regain self-control.

3. School will prohibit from using force as a form of punishment.

c)Records:

School shall keep a record of any student misconduct and actions taken by the school.

1. Level 1 misconduct shall be recorded only at the class level by the teacher. The misconduct may be added to the student's file or report card where it is repeated, or where escalation is required.

2. Level 2, 3, and 4 misconduct shall be recorded at the school level by the administration. All level 2 (on/offsite suspensions and expulsions), 3, and 4 misconduct shall be reported to ADEK.

3. School, ADEK, and any social care support providers (e.g., social workers, and counsellors) shall treat all information about students' behaviour as strictly confidential.

d)Approval for Expulsion:

School shall seek ADEK's approval to expel a student.

8. Bullying Prevention

School will develop a Bullying Prevention Policy in line with the National Policy for the Prevention of Bullying in Educational Institutions. (SJS Refer Anti bullying Policy)

Schools shall establish systems to track and monitor instances of bullying

9. Support and Interventions

School shall provide appropriate, focused, and supportive student-centric interventions to students who have been identified as either engaging in behaviours of concern, misconduct or deemed to be at risk of engaging in behaviours of concern.

- a) Analysis of causality
- b) professional support to address the specific needs of the student, parents.
- c) Referral to external specialists to provide intensive, individualized, and long term support.
- d) ensure that any support and intervention to address a student's behavior shall not reduce or replace the support available to students with additional learning needs, as outlined in their DLP.

10.Compliance

Failure to comply with this policy shall be subject to legal accountability and the penalties stipulated in accordance with ADEK's regulations, policies, and requirements, notwithstanding any other penalties imposed by Federal Decree Law No. (31) of 2021

Promulgating the Crimes and Penalties Law or any other relevant law. ADEK reserves the right to intervene if the school is found to be in violation of its obligations.
